Trips of Discovery

Urban Water Voyages, Scenic Countryside Tours and Much More to Seek Out

Mad About Madison’s Abundant Arts and Eats
RALEIGH'S RESTAURANT
Renaissance

Less than 200 miles from Columbus, this city in North Carolina's Research Triangle is in the midst of a culinary breakthrough.

BY SAM KENNEDY

For an introduction to Raleigh, North Carolina, look no further than Province Shaker Muir, a neighborhood of the city's beginning many years ago. The proximity to all of the city's core events and entertainment venues makes it an ideal place to stop in for a quick meal or a full evening out. With its proximity to downtown Raleigh, it is the perfect spot for a weekend getaway or a day trip into the city.

This is the city and its culture, a mix of traditional values and contemporary influences, that defines Raleigh as a unique place. The city is growing, and with that growth comes a thriving food scene, offering a wide variety of restaurants to suit every palate.

SOFT PRESENT THE COMFORT FOODS
In the same way that downtown Raleigh offers a wide variety of restaurants, the city's food scene is constantly evolving, offering something for everyone. From upscale dining to casual eateries, there is a restaurant for every taste.

MORE COMFORT FOODS
Tango's House
Southern Fried Fried Chicken
442-Collins Ave
(919) 845-9035

DeCafe Market
Italian and Mediterranean
100-110 W Main St
(919) 831-6260

The Southern Wine Co.
Fried Chicken and its new menu items
474 Progress Ave
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000

The Palin Door Cafe
Ramen and its new menu items
250 W. Academy St
(919) 434-9000